

Mediaroots - Dreamweaver CS3 Core Training

Summary of Contents

Introduction

Welcome

Section A

The Dreamweaver CS3 interface

1. MAC & PC differences
2. The Welcome screen
3. The Insert bar
4. The Property Inspector
5. The Document toolbar & window
6. Panels and panel groups inc. MAC & PC differences

Section B

Defining a Site:

1. Defining a new site
2. Importing an existing site
3. File naming conventions
4. Managing files within dreamweaver

Section C

Getting Started

1. Coding concepts
2. Adding some text
3. Adding images
4. Adding links
5. Creating pop-ups, links that open in a new window
6. Adding email links
7. Working with tables
8. Using guides
9. Background images
10. Title and "META" data
11. Previewing in your browser

Section D

1. Integration with Photoshop
2. Slicing the PSD
3. Exporting for Dreamweaver
4. Copying and pasting from Photoshop

Section E

1. An introduction to CSS
2. Internal style sheets through the page properties window
3. Exporting your internal CSS to an external CSS document

4. External style sheets
5. Page appearance
6. Text formatting
7. Margins and padding
8. Line height and letter spacing
9. Link formatting: rollover styles
10. Converting inline CSS
11. CSS power, swapping style sheets
12. Centring the page vertically and horizontally
13. Using div tags to lay out content

Section F

Accessibility

1. Overview of accessibility
2. Running a site report
3. Adding buttons to adjust font sizes

Section G

Adding the bells & whistles

1. Adding special characters
2. Working with image maps
3. Adding roll-over images
4. Creating a contact form
5. Making the contact form work

Section H

Spry

1. What is spry?
2. Defining a spry data set
3. Adding a spry table
4. Adding a spry collapsible panel
5. Adding a spry tabbed panel

Section I

Multimedia content

1. Adding a Flash file
2. Adding video or sound as a quicktime file

Section J

Launch your website

1. Preparing for publishing
2. Validate the code
3. Browser compatibility check
4. Using dreamweaver for ftp